HE WANTS TO KNOW

ANXIOUS INQUIRER AS TO CLIMATIC AND BUSINESS CONDITIONS IN GLENDALE

Mr. E. J. Golden, a retired business man of Fort Wayne, Ind., where for nearly 40 years he conducted a wholesale haberdashery known all over the East, is now a resident of Glendale, and an enthusiastic booster for Glendale. Recently he received a letter from an old friend, a real estate man, who has the California fever, but he is anxious about business conditions as well as the climate. He says in the letter:

"Myself and family are planning to come out there this year, unless we get a few more bad reports that stop us. I expect to get my business in shape so we can get away some time perhaps in July or August. We figure to drive through. We are regular joy-riders and would enjoy the trip via auto hugely. You understand, we expect to come out there and make it our future home. That's what I have in my head, and the family seem to think they would like it there. What I am particularly interested in, however, is business conditions. How do the prospects look ahead? You are a good old hard-headed business man, and I know you will advise me the truth on conditions. Things have been slow here, but I believe will open up very nice this spring. What we need most is sunshine, and warm weather. That will give everybody a feeling to do business. I expect us to recover very quickly when the sun begins to shine. We are just through quite heavy rains the last three or four days. Almost flood stage. Rivers got very high, but the scare is over. These rains have taken all frost out of the ground. In fact, there was not much frost in because the climate has been very unusual, warm all winter. We are all set now for sunshine. I like sunshine, and that's one of the reasons I've got California in my head. It's a better climate I am looking for. Yours very truly, B. F. ROUSSEAU."

Mr. Golden has already assured his friend, by letter, that as far as Glendale goes, business was never more prosperous and the News can add little to his statement for he knows he is a great booster for his adopted city. Never a week passes now without new business projects being established, some of large proportions and all our merchants are optimists. With new streets opening, great paving contracts proceeding and the Electric Line's loop about to be constructed, linking in still closer bonds the southern, central and eastern sections, Glendale has an unexampled future before it. The fact that it is impossible to rent a strictly modern home in any part of the city for any price until the new buildings now under construction are completed, is sufficient proof of the desirability of Glendale as a residence city. When Mr. Golden's friend once gets a sight of beautiful Glendale, lying in the rich San Fernando Valley and girt in with towering hills and mountains with orange groves clustering at the bases, he will think he has landed in the fabled garden of the gods.

FACULTY IN DRAMA

INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL PUPILS TREATED TO SURPRISE BY PRIN. WHITE AND TEACHERS

Pupils in the Intermediate School received the surprise of their young lives Thursday afternoon when they were summoned to a special assembly at 1:30 o'clock where after three musical numbers by students, a little comedy, "The Deestrick Skule," was presented by members of the faculty. It was intended to picture the district school of seventy-five years ago with a few modern features in the way of chewing gum of the Wrigley formula instead of the spruce variety, "all-day suckers" and a few other of the delights of Young America of today.

Miss Helen White, arrayed in a royal purple gown and white apron, with a bunch of keys jingling at her belt and spectacles low hung upon her nose, was the teacher.

Superintendent White was Mike O'Flynn, an Irish lad in trousers that had seen better days, green hose, a hat outgrown about ten years before.

Mr. Blanford as Aleck Smarten was the bad boy of the school.

E. E. Harwood, principal of the Cerritos School, was little Buddy Honeysuckle, four years old, dressed in knickerbockers and light waist and carefully guarded by his twin sisters, "Mariah Hannah Honeysuckle" and "Hannah Mariah Honeysuckle," in the persons of Miss Robertson and Miss E. Jackson.

DISCOVERS JOKER

ASSEMBLYMAN WHITE FINDS BAD CLAUSE IN LEGISLATION, MOVES FOR RECONSIDERATION

The constituents of John Robert White and the constituents of some other members of the State Legislature have had an opportunity to find out that not many things in connection with his duties as a law-maker escape his notice. According to the story bill 185, introduced by Ed Manning of Marin county, and which was passed last Monday, contained a "joker" which, if it had gone through without being tripped up would have made the City of San Francisco liable for unpaid claims in public contracts running back to the beginning of the time when public records were kept. Millions of dollars would have been in litigation and subject to legal attack. No voice was raised against it when up for passage, members being busy with other matters of more interest to them and more seeming importance than this innocent appearing bill, but Assemblyman John Robert White, Jr., discovered the joker and promptly moved for reconsideration.

It is said that a certain contractor in San Francisco has been endeavoring to bring suit against the city for a number of years. Under the present law the suit cannot be brought. The city had allowed some irregularity to slip into the proceedings and the contractor has not been able to collect his money. It is understood the bill would also effect proceedings under the Vrooman act, which was supplanted by the Charter of San Francisco City and County.

Members of the San Francisco delegation declare that if the bill became law the contractors who were refused payment during the old graft days could come into court at this late day and make the city and county of San Francisco defendant in action to recover.

DEATH OF MR. WATTS

James M. Watts, aged 80 years, died last evening, 6:30, at his home, 408 N. Louise, of heart trouble. He had been ailing for some months. He leaves a wife. The funeral will be in charge of the Knights Templar Commandery No. 53, and will be held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Masonic Temple, in charge of Pulliam Undertaking Company, directors.

GLENDALE COMMANDERY

The fraters of Glendale Commandery and all others sojourning in our neighborhood, are requested to meet at the Asylum on Monday, April 7th, 1919, at 2:30 p. m., sharp, for the purpose of conducting the funeral honors of knighthood for our beloved frater, Sir James M. Watts.

CHARLES L. PECKHAM, Commander.
C. C. RITTENHOUSE, Recorder.

Three members of the Shugrue family at 1235 South Maryland avenue, are confined to their home by influenza, but are so far recovered that the quarantine will be lifted Sunday.

"Susan Jane Simpkins," the teacher's pet, long curls, a pink band on her hair, and a generally sweet, simpering expression adding to the realism of the portrayal.

Frances Jackson was a star performer as a bad girl. She wore a long-sleeved apron and read an essay on "Boys."

Miss Candelott as "Mrs. Honeysuckle" was the visiting mother and filled the part consistently. She contributed an original poem appropriate to the last day of school.

Miss Wooldridge besides enacting the pupil part of "Prudence Ann Plunkett" also personated the "School Trustees" in the last part of the performance, making a fitting speech to the school and presenting prizes as rewards of merit.

Miss Brenneman as "Mary Ann Jenkins" sang "Sweet Alice, Ben Bolt," in a feeling manner that brought tears even to the eyes of the trustee and the visiting mother.

Miss Jones as "Hopeful O' Feed" was a typical pupil and read an essay on "The Cow."

Still another essay was furnished by the smart, literary pupil, on "Benjamin Franklin," by Miss Duncan as "Sally Lunn," who was dressed in white and wore a red sash.

"Miss Flossie Cornatssel," another valued pupil, was represented by Miss McPherson.

Miss Sinclair was absent on account of illness.

The applause from the boys and girls of the Intermediate who served as audience was perfectly uproarious. They declared they hadn't had so much fun before this year, and the actors seemed to enjoy it, too.

PRESIDENT WILSON IMPROVES

"BIG FOUR" CONTINUE TO MEET AND IT IS RUMORED ITALY WILL WITHDRAW UNLESS GIVEN FIUME

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, April 5.—Admiral Grayson, the President's personal physician, declared early today that the President rested well last night and his condition is improved this morning, but that he must remain abed throughout the day and probably throughout the morning. This afternoon Admiral Grayson issued a signed statement saying:

"President Wilson came very near to having a serious attack of influenza, but by going to bed at once, under my direction, apparently he has escaped it. He is still necessarily confined to his bed."

Members of the "Big Four" met in a room adjoining the President's this morning, Colonel House representing the President.

Word was persistently spread throughout Paris that Italy will withdraw Monday from the conference unless given Fiume, but no one seemed excited except Italians. No such notice has been given to the peace conference.

CANCELS LOWER CALIFORNIA CONCESSION

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT REVOKES PRIVILEGES GIVEN TO CALIFORNIA-MEXICO LAND CO. OF LOS ANGELES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Mexico City, April 5.—The government announced today the cancellation of the concession granted to the California Land Company of Los Angeles.

The concession covers over thirteen million acres in the northwest portion of Lower California, between the 29th and 32nd parallels, and a large portion of it is in the delta of the Colorado River and the Imperial Valley. The land originally was granted to General Andrade by President Diaz of Mexico on the stipulation that the land be colonized by a certain number of families annually.

The government declares that the stipulation has not been carried out and that after the California-Mexico Land Company acquired the property it was improved but not colonized.

The government says it will pay the owners for improvements.

HARRY CHANDLER'S COMPANY NOT INVOLVED

SAYS HIS CALIFORNIA-MEXICO LAND CO. HAS ONLY 880,000 ACRES AND NO QUESTION OF OWNERSHIP

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Los Angeles, April 5.—President Harry Chandler of the California-Mexico Land Company says it is a mistake that his company's land has been confiscated. He said, when interviewed, that they only had 880,000 acres and that no concession or agreement was involved in the title, also that there was no question about the ownership.

HUNGARIANS INVITED TO RETURN

ARE ASKED TO COME HOME TO ENJOY A SOCIALISTIC FATHERLAND WITH IMMIGRATION CAUSES REMOVED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Buda Pesth, April 5.—(Copyrighted, 1919, by United Press.)—Through Foreign Minister Bela Kun the new Hungarian government has issued an invitation to all Hungarians in America to return to Hungary and enjoy the fruits of a socialistic revolution, saying they will find Hungary a socialistic fatherland.

He declares the causes for their immigration have been removed and that there is now room for plenty of workers. Bela Kun declared: "Our foreign policy is one of peace," but added that Hungary is willing to fight to maintain peace.

"We have the friendliest feeling toward all nations, especially America, which is showing a most impartial and just attitude toward every country," he said. "We have the warmest feeling for the German proletariat, to which we are indebted for the theories which we have put into practice. Nothing binds us to Russia except the international solidarity of the working classes."

G. U. H. WINS AND LOSES ARNETT BOYS' DOINGS

BY VOTE OF 3-0 DEBATERS LOSE TO HOLLYWOOD AND WIN FROM SANTA MONICA

The audience which came out to hear the really fine debate between members of the debating team of Glendale High and Santa Monica High Friday evening at the High School was meagre, and several members of the P. T. A. who were present expressed indignation that friends of the school had not rallied in greater numbers to encourage the students in this department who worked hard to prepare their arguments and presented them in a very satisfactory manner although all were too hurried by the brief time allowed for first presentation and rebuttal to indulge in any rhetorical or oratorical effects.

James McClusky presided with dignity and introduced the speakers. The judges selected were Dr. Henry Weiman of the Sociological Department of Occidental, Dr. Emory Olson of the Department of Economics of U. S. C., and A. F. Hansen, teacher of English in Manual Arts High of Los Angeles.

On account of tire trouble the Santa Monica debaters were delayed in reaching Glendale and the contest did not open until considerably after 9 o'clock. The Hollywood delegation returned before the judges here had rendered their verdict which was three to nothing in favor of Glendale against Santa Monica, whereas at Hollywood the same verdict was brought against the Glendale debaters. As the negative side was defeated in each case it would appear that the weight of argument is in favor of suspending immigration.

The exact question debated was: "Resolved, that Congress at its next session should enact a law providing for the suspension of immigration for four years as embodied in the Burnett bill."

The affirmative speakers who were the representatives of Glendale High, Messrs. Wise and Worley, proved to the satisfaction of the audience and the judges that there is an excess of labor at the present time with unemployed men totaling—according to some estimates—one million, that there is a spirit of unrest among these unemployed men which must be absorbed into the industries of the country before conditions will be made safe for democratic institutions; that time is needed for a readjustment of many industries which have been diverted from peace production to war work and that the United States will have all it can handle in solving its industrial problems with the surplus labor it now has and will continue to receive as the soldiers return from abroad and from home camps, and as ship building plants and munitions factories cease production, without inviting the men from Europe who are needed in the reconstruction of devastated territory there but who may seek to evade the heavy taxes imposed upon them by the indemnities they will be required to pay. They argued that the suspension of immigration for four years would give time for reconstruction of industries and for a beginning on the Americanization of the foreigners we already have. It would solve the question of racial equality which Japan is raising, because she would receive the same treatment given to other nations, and would also avoid occasion for any special bitterness on the part of Germany and Austria for any exclusion policy. Also, it would close the doors to Bolshevism and its propaganda. The claim that America is immune to Bolshevism was combated by reference to the Seattle troubles which the affirmatives declared were inspired by Bolshevism under the cloak of the I. W. W. Restriction, they argued, would not be sufficient as the literacy test had proved ineffective and had not been indorsed by the three Presidents of the United States, Taft, Roosevelt and Wilson, who had vetoed such bills.

The negative speakers on the other hand argued that the war had demonstrated that the United States has not the crying need of Americanization which has been claimed, that large numbers of our soldiers were either foreign-born or the sons of foreign-born who were nevertheless loyal citizens and who had performed prodigies of valor on the battlefields and contributed to the winning of victory for the principles this government stands for also that this government was founded and established as a refuge for the oppressed of all nations, and that now when America is taking a conspicuous place at the peace table as an advocate of democracy is no time for her to abandon her high principles and shut the door in the face of the unfortunates who are looking to her for help and succor. They insisted that there is lit-

ROBERT RETURNS TO A FORMER POSITION IN 'FRISCO, CLAUD A STUDENT IN BORDEAUX

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Arnett of 311 North Jackson street are saying good-bye to their son Robert, recently returned from service, who goes north to work until next fall in a cannery where he has been employed for six summers. In that time he has become very well acquainted with the owner of the cannery who has been trying to secure him for some time. He has lent a hand in almost every department and is trying to learn the business. Last year he was foreman of the warehouse. This year he wants to familiarize himself with the mechanical side. One year he had charge of packing. In the factory he is known as "Bobby" and they seem to think he is "all right," so it will be a pleasure to him to return there to work though both he and his parents would have been glad could he have found just what he wanted here so he could be at home.

Three other Arnett boys are in France. The oldest, Claud, is attending a French university in Bordeaux. There were so many applicants among the American soldiers they could not admit them all. The boys have so much time to kill it gets very monotonous and there were many who wanted to enroll.

Another of the Arnett boys who is at the Motor Transport Reconstruction Base, writes they have a very fine Y. M. C. A. but there and splendid Y. M. C. A. service, that he wouldn't want to remain in that camp very long were it not for the Y. They have good buildings, plenty of places for the boys to write and a great many magazines, which makes it pleasant for boys who like to read, and he does.

VICTORY CAMPAIGN

The officers of the Glendale Presbyterian Church are glad to announce to the citizens of Glendale and surrounding country, the beginning of the "Victory Campaign" under the leadership of Dr. French E. Oliver, an evangelist so far above the average, that he stands in a class by himself. To all who give him a fair hearing there is no doubt as to their verdict. To all the people, regardless of their church connection, and insofar as it will not conflict with their own church duties, a most cordial invitation is given to attend the various meetings. Dr. Oliver's afternoon lectures should be heard by everyone. They will begin at 3 o'clock every afternoon except Monday and Saturday.

There will be no collections at these meetings, the entire expense being provided for by the church officials. At the close of the meetings, a free-will offering will be taken for the evangelist.

Dr. Oliver is a man of most striking personality—towering like a giant head and shoulders above the average man—standing six feet four inches in height, with broad shoulders, as straight as an Indian. His great strength lies in the quality of his mind and soul. God has been very generous to him, in giving him a superb mental power. He opens to his hearers the literature, history, science, biography, philosophy, theology, poetry and art of all lands with the ease of a great master that he is.

He has been an extensive traveler both in this country and Europe, hence is never at loss for just the right illustration with which to clinch the truth he is trying to lodge in the hearts of his hearers.

Among other things Dr. Oliver is pre-eminently a young people's man. His talks to the young people of the state are spoken of as the most sane and sensible. People who say they do not like evangelists, turn out in large numbers to hear this talented and consecrated man, because he is different. Hear him and be convinced.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair except cloudy or foggy tonight and in the early morning.

The prospect of large immigration from Europe because men would be so sorely needed there, and that what few came in would be off-set by the migration from this country. They contended that Bolshevism does not exist in the United States and that its menace has been exaggerated. Their main argument was that the suspension of immigration is un-American and an abandonment of democratic principles.

All were excellent in rebuttal, but Mr. Worley was especially keen in finding flaws in the arguments of his adversaries, and those present felt they had spent a highly profitable evening which had afforded a good deal of food for thought on an important issue, also that the verdict was a just one.

HAS EARNED ITS PLACE

THE AUTOMOBILE AS A PLEASURE VEHICLE

Time was when the shiny side-bar buggy drawn by a glossy bay or dapple gray bedecked in well-greased harness was the acme of attainment for the city or rural beau, and so provided he fared proudly forth to bear away his blushing sweetheart to fair, circus or church. And what races there were on the homeward trip with Bill handling the ribbons and the whip while Belle urged forward the excited steed with shrieks of encouragement. But now those days are forever gone. The side-bar is in the scrap-heap, the steed relegated to the plow, unless, mayhap, the tractor has displaced him even there. Now, instead of discoursing learnedly of pedigree horses—Copperbottoms, Hambletonians or Monarchs—the young men talk glibly of Fords and Can't Af-Fords, while the girls excitedly discuss sedans, limousines, touring cars and seven-passengers. Now, instead of the young man driving gaily up to the front door and hallooing for the young lady to "hurry out for Dick won't stand," he glides smoothly up in the high-powered Crackajack roadster and tunelessly sounds his honker. Instead of going for a 20-or-25-mile drive behind Dick, they think nothing of reeling off 100 miles or more between 6 and 10 p. m. In this glorious climate of Southern California, where the flowers ever bloom and the mockingbirds never cease their song, where the snow-capped mountains look frowningly down on the sun-kissed orange groves, auto travel is a dream and a delight. When the tired householder, spent from long hours' toil in the stuffy store or office in Los Angeles, boards the stand-up-and-take-notice Glendale car for home, his thoughts leap forward eagerly to the after-supper spin, with wife beside him and kiddies packed in behind. Every click on rail joint as the cars gather speed in the downward rush toward Ivanhoe, reminds him that home and "chow" are nearer, ever nearer. Every stop, at street or wayside kiosk, is impatiently checked off. What though empty seats are many as the crowds pile off, he scorns to sit. At last his street is reached and off he steps. Soon the cheery bungalow home is reached, supper is found ready and all sit down to the evening meal. Tired mother's face lights up as kiddies eagerly discuss "where shall we go tonight?" The meal concluded, dishes are stacked up in the sink to await another day for washing, wraps are donned, the faithful joy-wagon is brought out and all pile in. They go just where the fancy strikes them, mayhap out Colorado street through Eagle Rock, across the wonderful Arroyo Seco bridge to Pasadena, then north and back home by way of La Canada and Montrose. Or possibly they run out through Burbank and Roscoe, then north to Sunland and east along that wonderful cement highway to La Crescenta and then down through Montrose and home. Such trips as these, after a hard day's work in office and home are regular life savers and save many doctor bills.

To any man who can possibly afford it the auto is a positive necessity. Here in California the work is so strenuous that daily relaxation is imperative if the pace is kept up. And in spite of war demands on the steel supply, auto prices are so very reasonable that a man with a moderate salary, if he be of a saving disposition, can easily pay for a machine. And the beauty of it is that all the time payments are being made the purchaser gets the full enjoyment of his purchase in these long, health-giving, restful trips.

To the owner of an auto the mountains and the beach resorts are next-door neighbors, and cities 50 miles apart are distant from each other only two hours. He does not have to hurry himself and family to the car line, crowd aboard where a dozen or more are already standing and join the upright brigade; then change to another "standing-room-only" car in the city and arrive at destination hot, tired, and fairly worn out. And the fare for a whole family is quite an item, too. If a man owns an auto all this trouble and worry are avoided. The expense of operating a car is a mere bagatelle when placed over against the dividends it constantly pays in pleasure and renewing of health.

ANOTHER AUTO TOP INVENTION

It is claimed a Japanese doctor has invented an auto top which can be raised and lowered with one hand and made to stop at any point between front and rear; or a simple pressure of the foot on a pedal accomplishes the same result. Then there is a turn-a-wheel method and a press-the-button which are equally successful. Any one of them can be fixed to any make of car.

RIDGE ROUTE TO BE CLOSED TEMPORARILY

The State Highway Association has recently given out from its office in Sacramento the statement that the Ridge Route on the main highway up the valley between Los Angeles and San Francisco will be closed during the summer. This means that summer travel between Northern and Southern California points will have to be over either Mint Canyon or Bouquet Canyon roads. A prominent auto distributor, who recently visited the office of the Commission, obtained there the following interesting information regarding this route:

Less than 18 miles of the ridge remains to be paved, said he, and I am informed that this will be completed during the summer and the ridge will be a paved road from end to end before next winter. Twelve miles of paving has been laid during the last year and work is now in progress. The remaining part of the road has been graded and is ready for paving. Within a very short time all travel, even to a wheelbarrow, will be stopped. This is necessary on account of the conditions in the higher parts of the ridge. The ridge route has been in poor shape for more than a year and the paving of this road will remove one of the unpleasant features of the trip between Los Angeles and San Francisco over the valley road. On account of the many turns a couple of good features are being incorporated in the work now being done. On the blind curves, daylight cuts or benching, is being put in. This consists of cutting away enough of the hill on the blind side to permit a view of vehicles that might be coming around. This will prevent many accidents. On the dangerous curves curbing is being put in. This curbing is 6 inches wide and 10 inches high and is for two purposes—one to assist in the drainage and the other to protect reckless drivers who may come around a turn too fast. This curbing is being installed wherever the engineers deem it advisable.

BUICK

THE CHOICE OF MEN OF AFFAIRS?

One reason why the Buick is the choice of the business world is, because the well informed buyers recognize it is a development of a business policy.

In considering the design and manufacture of Buick cars, bear in mind they are made to meet the conditions encountered in business service—where things must move with clock-like regularity and precision, where business equipment is judged by its ability to produce.

THE NASH TO THE FRONT

Mr. Thomas G. Widmeyre now has his fine auto salesroom at 207 North Brand, the former home of the S. and B. Garage, in beautiful shape for business, and the Nash car has come into its own in Glendale. But as time and tide wait for no man, the Nash couldn't wait to have a home before it started moving. Mr. Widmeyre sold three of them before they could be placed on the floor.

Mr. Widmeyre is a distinct asset in Glendale's business life. He was formerly auto agent for the Salt Lake Railroad Co., then general agent, located in Chicago, and later division freight agent in Los Angeles. He has been living in Glendale since last September and was so in love with it that he decided to embark in the auto business here, and he chose the Nash as the coming car. He bought one in Chicago a year ago and has driven it ever since with a minimum of wear. Today it looks like a new car.

JUST LIKE A CAPSULE

Now that the camping season is at hand, autoists will be inquiring about outfits. The war is over and the great strain removed, so the lover of camping out trips can begin to get ready. One of the finest outfits that has come under our notice lately is the Stoll Auto Bed and Olive Drab Tent complete. It consists of tent, slip-cover, tent-stretcher and auto bed. These can be folded into such a small compass that they can be packed on the running board. When night comes, the tent and cover are attached, the bed is placed and a cozy little bedroom is ready. Camp stools can be bought to go with the outfit and each folds up like a music roll. It is all so simple and yet so handy that Mr. Butts of the Monarch Company never tires of describing it.

SIGN SHOOTERS TO BE PUNISHED

The Auto Club of Southern California has been greatly annoyed at the defacement of sign posts and signs by reckless hunters, who, unable to shoot any game, vented their enthusiasm and their lack of skill on the innocent signs. But a law has been found that will exactly fit this crime.

This is what Section 590 of the Penal Code provides: "Every person who maliciously removes, destroys, injures, breaks or defaces any mile post, board or stone, or guide post, erected on or near any highway, or any inscription thereon, is guilty of a misdemeanor." Then, Section 590a provides: "One-half of all fines imposed and collected under the provisions of Section 590 shall be paid to the informer who first causes a complaint to be filed charging the defendant with the violation of said section."

Does Retreading Pay? We Answer YES and NO

YES, if properly done, if proper materials are used, and if the utmost care is taken not to work over tires that are worthless.

When the above requisites are lacking; when good judgment, materials and workmanship are not employed, then we say, without hesitation, that retreading does not pay. Appearances are often deceiving and bitter experience many times turns the deceived customer against retreads in general.

The Monarch Company points with pride to hundreds of their retreads now being used in Glendale and vicinity.

Not one complaint has been made with regard to failure of treads to last the guaranteed time. They usually pass the guarantee by thousands of miles. Occasionally there are "blowouts," but in such cases we can point with equal pride to a satisfied customer who invariably finds the Monarch Guarantee made good.

We print below a letter from the Glendale Mill Co., one of Glendale's most creditable manufacturing concerns and known everywhere for their "Merit Wood Products."

Glendale, Cal., April 2, 1919.

"THE MONARCH COMPANY.

"Gentlemen: In reply to your request for a report on the tires you have retreaded for us, we are pleased to express our entire satisfaction with results thus far. One tire, a 34x4 United States, you retreaded, has been running on the right rear of our Buick Six roadster continuously, and the mileage to date stands 5,104. The ribs on this tire are still slightly visible, and, according to the amount of rubber you claim to use in your work, we can well expect to double this mileage.

"Another tire which was wearing equally well, one which, by the way, you did not sell us, blew out at about 3,100 miles. As this came within your guarantee of 3,500 miles, we are glad to state that it was at once repaired free of charge and is in satisfactory service again, having now run far past the guarantee. Allow us to say that the way you live up to your guarantee is as satisfactory as the work itself.

"While we have this matter in hand, we wish to volunteer a report on two Goodyear All-weather tires we have been using on the same machine. One has made 14,784 miles to date and the other 15,593, and both are still in service.

"You are welcome to use this letter in any way you may see fit.

"Yours very truly,

"GLENDALE MILL COMPANY,
"C. U. MANDIS."

Mr. E. S. McKee of the Central Market, 116 N. Brand, says:

"You have been retreading the tires for our delivery cars ever since you established your new plant. These tires, without exception, have proved satisfactory, notwithstanding the extremely hard service demanded of them. The success attending your retreads I partly attribute to the fact that we use only high-grade tires."

The above are but samples of many, and serve as proof of the fact that

Some Retreading Does Pay

If you are in need of NEW TIRES, we respectfully solicit your orders, as we have splendid lines to select from.

VALUE CARS AT VOLUME PRICES

IT CERTAINLY IS A STAYER

Bartlett & French are mighty proud of the shiny new Essex, which is creating such a sensation in the motor world. It is a low-priced car with high-priced specifications. The striking features of construction which make the Hudson so famous as a stayer are embodied in the Essex. The little story below, showing the endurance of the Hudson Super-Six, which was so strikingly shown in the coast-to-coast run a year or two ago in record-breaking time, will make Essex and Hudson owners say, "We told you so!"

Mrs. H. Stenzel of San Lorenzo, Calif., who has motored all over Nevada, Arizona and down into Mexico, recently arrived in Los Angeles after a trip of seventeen hours and sixteen minutes actual driving time from Oakland, by way of the inland route and Bouquet Canyon, to Los Angeles. Leaving Oakland in the morning, Mrs. Stenzel made Lebec, in Tejon Pass, the first night. Leaving Lebec the next morning in a heavy rainstorm, all alone in her Hudson sedan, Mrs. Stenzel bravely essayed the trip via the Mojave desert and Bouquet Canyon to Los Angeles.

STUDEBAKER ON THE JOB

A delightful trip was enjoyed Sunday by Ralph Barr and family, who motored to Topanga Canyon in the Studebaker '19 Light 6 which Mr. Barr is driving. They made the top of the canyon, "nice, easy and slow in high gear" where they stopped and gazed at the wonderful view of the valley spread out before them and enjoyed some fine cider secured at the refreshment station. As Mr. Barr tells the story, they "ambled down the other side and were nearly pushed off the grade by a fellow racing with another fool autoist. As we turned a sharp corner about half way down we saw two young deer standing quietly just above the road so tame that they made no attempt to get away. Coming on down to the beach to Inceville we ran along the Malibu Road to the Japanese fishing village where we tried to buy some fish, but the fishermen were all on strike so we came on home declaring it had been a very lovely trip because we had such a good easy-riding car and no trouble of any kind, not even a puncture." Mrs. Barr, who has been riding with friends in a $5,000 Locomobile, assures her husband his car is much more comfortable and much easier riding.

Mr. Butts, of the Monarch Company, this city, who is also driving a Studebaker '19 Light 6, says that his car is developing more and more power as it "breaks in," which is a very pleasing and satisfactory development. He also drove to Topanga Canyon Sunday.

HANDS OFF THE CARBURETOR

Says Max Green, of the Oakland Agency, in Glendale:

"Nothing will contribute so much to the satisfactory and economical performance of your car as proper carburetion. Proper carburetion is a matter of proper carburetor adjustment. Such adjustment is best left to the dealer in your vicinity. If it is necessary for you to attempt the adjustment yourself, read your carburetor instruction sheet carefully first. But before you undertake an adjustment, be sure an adjustment is needed. Be sure also that you understand how to make the adjustment, and why. Don't tinker."

AUTO ENTHUSIAST

Mrs. Louise Purnell of Riverdale Drive, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Katie Hilton, will leave today by auto for San Francisco for an absence of a week or ten days. Mrs. Purnell is a great autoist. Few residents of Glendale have more thoroughly toured Southern California. She has an up-to-date Overland car capable of standing the strain of mountain climbs and hard service and is happy in having with her as chauffeur a young man just returned from army service who has been with her since he was nineteen years of age and who says he expects to put in the next six months driving around. Mrs. Purnell's most recent trip was to Mint Canyon with a party of eleven in two cars who enjoyed a picnic dinner there. The group included friends from the east and from Los Angeles.

OLD TIME BUICKS STILL ON THE JOB

Mr. Wm. J. LaGrange of Rensselaer, New York, in commenting on pictures of old-time cars in a recent number of the Buick Bulletin, wrote: "I note that you show some of the old timers still on the job. But I can't see where they have anything on me, as I have used the old 2-A 1910 Buick ever since I have had it. Now, in place of lightening the burdens of the aged, I have built a trailer to attach to it and can pull two loads at once. It does not haul feathers by any means, but iron and wire fences, loaded to more than full ca-

Q. What is a Gates Half-Sole Tire?

A. The Gates Half-Sole Tire is a new tire, manufactured without a head from new, live rubber and highest grade fabric, designed to be applied over a new smooth or treadworn casing. It is guaranteed the same as other tires—and more, because it is guaranteed against puncture; yet it costs only 1/2 as much as other tires. It is not a "sewed on" vulcanized on" or "retread" proposition in any sense of the word.

No Substitute

Whether you are married or single, after providing the necessary living expense, what is your chief object in life? I know. It is to protect your dependents or somebody whom you care for, in case of your premature death; to provide sufficient for a sure income and independence in old age; and to lay up for a rainy day.

How can you accomplish all this in the best and only certain way? Through a good endowment policy of life insurance. You can not do it ALL in any other way. Think it over. "THERE IS NO SUBSTI-TUTE."

You say you have some—you know you need more. Talk to me about it.

Great Excitement Prevails

The Natural History classes in the schools are all agog over the strange new species of birds and animals recently discovered. These are not relics of prehistoric specimens, simply a few bones, but really-for-sure creatures in all the glory of life and color. They are being daily inspected by excited thongs of children and older people as well, at

Roberts & Echols' Drug Store

where a large space in the center of the store is devoted to the display. There are bunnies of cotton and of wool, bunnies in wood and in rubber, and bunnies in most startling colors. And such downy little chicks, proud-strutting roosters, giant white herons and many new types of bird and beast never before seen on land or sea. Yes, and you ought to gaze on the nests of eggs, baskets of eggs, bird houses, bird street cars and bird arks. A whole newspaper wouldn't give enough space in which to describe the wonders of this great

EASTER DISPLAY

There are, in addition to the above, Easter cards in many dainty designs and just heaps and heaps of candy eggs, from the wee ones like marbles to the great big ones a real Biddy might claim, some of them in rich chocolate designs and some in other beautiful and fancy patterns.
